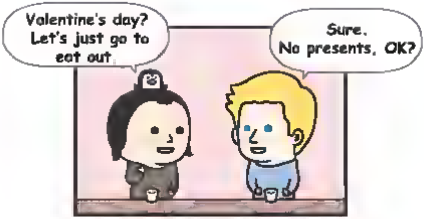
Valentine's Day Present

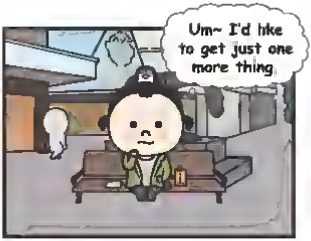


A few days before Valentine's day,
We said this like always.

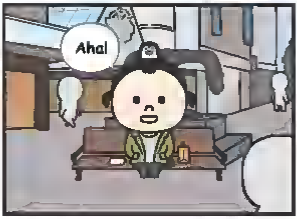
However, I went to town to get a small present for him.

I already got something but...

I already got something but...



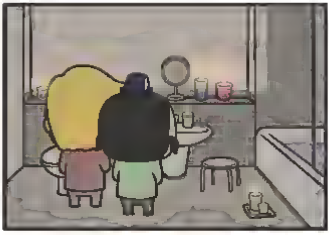
... I wanted to add something on top



14th February Valentine's day

I trapped Mev in the lounge,
and I prepared a mini event.

What I prepared was...



.... a fancy hat bubble bath....

... with lots of candles and a bath ball

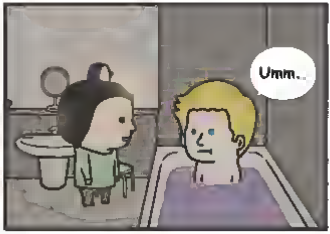
Also, I prepared some nice music and some chocolates.

Mev really liked my presents.

I felt nice.

Lastly, I offered Mev a drink.



However,
I noticed that Mev hesitated.

However,
I noticed that Mev hesitated.

... He loves a bubble bath.

Oh yeah~
